JB Industries Wins Bronze in ACHR News 2018 Dealer Design Awards for SH-35N

Aurora, Illinois (July 23, 2018) - JB Industries, a premier manufacturer of American made HVAC/R tools and equipment, was recognized for excellence in product design in the 15th annual Dealer Design Awards Program sponsored by The Air Conditioning Heating & Refrigeration News magazine. An independent panel of contractors acted as judges in the contest that had 98 entries. The SH-35N Wireless Digital Gauge for Superheat and Subcooling was awarded Bronze in the Electronic and Hand Tools Category. The ACHR News is the leading trade magazine in the heating, ventilating, air conditioning, and refrigeration industries.

News Publisher Mike Murphy stated, "These awards give us a unique opportunity to recognize the outstanding research and development efforts that go into many of the products serving the HVACR industry and the awards issue gives our readers an opportunity to read about innovative installation and service solutions."

"JB Industries is honored to be recognized by the ACHR News," says Oscar Lopez, Vice President of Sales. "We are committed to providing quality tools and instruments to the HVAC/R industry."

Winning entries in the Dealer Design Awards were featured in the July 23, 2018 issue of The ACHR News, which is distributed nationally to over 33,000 HVACR contractors, wholesalers, and other industry professionals. For more information and further coverage, visit www.achrnews.com.
