JB Industries Announces Exclusive Partnership with Premier German Tool Manufacturer ROTHENBERGER

Aurora, IL- JB Industries is proud to announce their exclusive partnership arrangement with ROTHENBERGER. Germany based, ROTHENBERGER combines German product engineering with European craftsmanship to create the highest quality pipe tools for the HVACR industry. ROTHENBERGER chose to partner with JB Industries because they wanted a teammate who valued an equal emphasis on high quality products and customer service, and was an influential player in the HVACR industry. JB Industries carries a wide selection of the ROTHENBERGER pipe tools which are featured in their new 2007 product catalog available now, as well as listed on their new website launching in February. The full ROTHENBERGER line is available through JB Industries. To see these high quality ROTHENBERGER tools for yourself and to experience how this partnership makes JB Just Better, please contact JB Industries at 800-323-0811, sales@jbind.com, or at booth 3257 at the upcoming AHR show Dallas, TX January 29-31.
